

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army has served the state of Idaho since 1887; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army has, through the past 115 years, maintained a high level of integrity and credibility in its ministry and service to people everywhere; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army has provided food, clothing, shelter and spiritual guidance to needy families and individuals since its inception; and

WHEREAS, The Salvation Army has been the leading social service agency in providing assistance to unwed mothers and in providing residential drug and alcohol treatment to those in need; and

WHEREAS, a love of God and a desire to help others is the motivation behind the men and women in The Salvation Army; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we set aside a special time to acknowledge the great service performed by The Salvation Army;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim May 13 through 19, 2002, to be in Idaho, and I urge all citizens to join me in saluting the steadfast men and women who bind up the broken hearted and renew the heart of our community by their quest of passion.

SALVATION ARMY WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this tenth day of April in the year of our Lord two-thousand and two and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-sixth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twelfth.
